

Allosaurus and salt!

1

At the museum, Andy was making a new display. It was all about Allosaurus, a dinosaur that was as tall as a giraffe! Andy had a big bag of salt to sprinkle around his display because, 145 million years ago, Allosaurus lived in salty deserts.

2

But when Andy opened the bag... "AAA-CHOO!" Oh no! The bag was filled with sneezy pepper instead of salt. "AAA-CHOO!" Andy sneezed again. "I haven't got time to get any salt before the museum opens!" he said. But just then, Andy heard the magic clock chime! Ding, ding, ding! It was time to go on a prehistoric adventure!

3

Andy hopped into the clock and disappeared in a flash of blue light!

I've travelled back in time 143 million years!

To the time of Allosaurus!

ROAR!

No sooner had Andy arrived than he heard a loud ROAR! It was a huge Allosaurus! Andy quickly jumped on the dino's back. He hoped it might take him somewhere he could find some salt. Andy's Allosaurus stomped along and joined two more Allosaurus in a big dusty desert.

But they were not alone...

5

There was a herd of enormous, long-necked Diplodocus! The Diplodocus herd started to run away, but the Allosaurus ran after them!

Woah!

6

Andy held on tight to his Allosaurus, but it was very bumpy and suddenly, he fell off! Andy landed on the desert floor with a BUMP!

9

Can you say it? Diplodocus dip-low-doh-cus

7

Andy couldn't believe his luck! He had landed in a big pile of salt! Just what he was looking for! Quickly he collected some and put it in his backpack. Now he needed to get back to the magic clock! Andy looked in his backpack and found a kite. How was that going to help? But just then, Andy had an idea!

8

Andy opened the kite and waited for a big gust of wind... it blew him back to the clock, just in time!

9

Andy got back to the museum and rushed to put his prehistoric salt on the Allosaurus display. What an amazing Allosaurus Adventure!

The end!
